Recommend Activities

Sulphur, OK is full of exciting locations to visit, please take the time to look at some of the things the city has to offer below.

Chickasaw National Recreation Area

Streams and lakes cater to boaters, swimmers, and anglers, while its forests and prairies reward hikers, wildlife photographers, and campers. The National Park Service manages the area, provides for recreational uses, and acts as caretaker of the natural and cultural features.

Turner Falls

The oldest park in Oklahoma, has been known as a popular recreation area since as early as 1868. Enjoy the spectacular view at the base of Turner Falls as Honey Creek cascades down 77 feet to create the largest waterfall in Oklahoma. Turner Falls has two unique natural swimming areas, one of which is at the base of the falls.

Arbuckle Mountains

If hiking is your thing, you'll love the diversity of the trails in the Arbuckle Mountains. Bird watching is fantastic all four seasons of the year. Hunting is another outdoor activity that attracts many people to Sulphur. Bring your horse and ride the multi-use trail at Chickasaw National Recreation Area. If you're looking for a place to ride your ATV or off road motorcycle, we have just the place for you!

Arbuckle Wilderness Park

Oklahoma's Premiere Exotic Animal Park, is an experience you won't want to miss. This fun-filled adventure gets you up close and personal with some wild, exotic, and rare animals. You can spend an entire day at this 400+ acre park feeding the animals and enjoying the amusement area and petting zoo. Fantastic fun for all ages!

Artesian Casino

Oklahoma's paramount casino gaming destination, this vibrant and bustling location offers the latest and greatest in exciting games. Try your hand at glittering electronic games, or take in old-fashioned fun at our classic tables while enjoying quintessential Artesian comfort and hospitality. Oklahoma gaming has never looked so good.

Chickasaw Cultural Center

Bringing the vision of the Chickasaw people to life, the Chickasaw Cultural Center is dedicated to sharing and celebrating Chickasaw history and culture through demonstrations and community outreach activities. It is the largest tribal cultural center in the United States located on 109 acres of rolling hills, woodlands and streams. Using modern technology, theatrical environments and interactive media stations, this state-of-the-art campus provides a non-traditional way of connecting to the Chickasaw culture. Explore the exhibit center, amphitheater, large-format theatre, research center, sky pavilion, garden village and cafe as you discover the amazing Chickasaw way of life.

Air Donkey Zipline Adventures

Come soar over 1 mile through the fresh air of the Arbuckle Mountains. With spectacular views of the ancient mountain range, you will engage 6 zip lines and one sky bridge and will have the experience of a lifetime. Our longest zipline is 1800 feet, which makes us Oklahoma's longest zipline! Each 2+ hour tour is guided by ACCT certified professionals.
